

Anglo-U. S. Leaders Says Heroic Action Only Conference Hope

Unspoken Realism Follows as Result of Mussolini Speech—France Wants a Public Showdown—U. S. Sees a Possible Mediator.

Geneva, May 28 (AP)—Representatives of the United States and Great Britain, emerging from a long conference, indicated today that the disarmament conference was in a grave situation and that its collapse is foreboding unless some nation can take heroic action to save it.

The Anglo-American conference was Norman Davis, ambassador-at-large, and Hugu Wilson, minister to Switzerland, for the United States, and John Simon, foreign secretary, and Capt. Anthony Eden, lord privy seal, for Great Britain.

It was understood that Sir John gave no inkling that Great Britain would propose concrete steps to save the conference.

Never has an international conference been accompanied by such tension and such confusion.

Premier Mussolini's speech in Rome, referring to the possibility of war, served to increase the pessimism. It was rumored that Italy might bolt from the conference.

The economic rivalries which Mussolini mentioned are also regarded here as increasing the difficulties of leaders who seek to push on to a disarmament agreement.

France wants a public showdown in the conference itself and is ready to discuss a European pact of mutual assistance which Maxim Litvinoff, Russian foreign commissar, probably will recommend.

A French spokesman said: "A pact of guarantees will depend for its success largely on the attitude of Russia and the United States who are the great producers of raw material."

The French authority added that assurances from the United States that it would not insist upon neutrality rights even in the event of an aggressive war, would do a great deal for the tranquility of Europe.

Davis, it was said, probably would refer to the American doctrine enunciated in 1922, that the United States will do nothing to impede collective action against an aggressor.

It was regarded as likely that the United States would not annul this doctrine but that, likewise, it was not planning to particularize or strengthen it. American officials here appear convinced that it constitutes a considerable contribution toward the organization of peace.

The fact that 15 foreign ministers are here, representing their nations, shows that they deem the situation critical.

NAVY APPARENT WINNER IN ROBINSON OPERATION

Balboa, C. Z., May 28 (AP)—The United States Navy apparently was the winner today in its dramatic mercy dash by air and sea to save William Albert Robinson, writer and explorer, stricken by appendicitis.

Brought here by the U. S. destroyer Hale from the lonely Galapagos Islands, 1,000 miles away, Robinson lay today in the army hospital. Physicians believe he will recover.

His bride, the former Florence Crane, Chicago heiress, dispatched wireless appeals for aid when Robinson was taken ill and the navy responded. Surgeons carried by airplane operated on Robinson Thursday night and the Hale began the return trip with him Friday.

It was a head-on collision, but damages were not serious and both cars were able to go on following the accident. Ethel And Woo Woo Held By the Police

Ethel Mills of New York City Was Ready to Leave by Bus When She Imbibed Too Much Stimulant—Woo Woo Is Her Pet Dog—Other Cases in Police Court.

Saturday evening the police were called to the Central Bus Terminal where they found Mrs. Ethel Mills, 45, who gave her address as New York city, intoxicated, and unable to walk, and a policeman had to pick her up in his arms and carry both out to the police car. Mrs. Mills also had a trunk with her, and the police also brought that to headquarters as well as a traveling case in which Woo Woo rides when taken on a trip.

Mrs. Mills spent Sunday in the county jail, as did Woo Woo, and did not think that the men appeared to be sober when they were taken to court. This morning in police court she pleaded guilty to public intoxication and was fined $5. She was accompanied into the court room by Woo Woo, who was on a leash. Woo Woo was a well behaved dog for he lay quietly at his mistress's feet when she stepped before the bar of justice.

As Judge Culliton had been called to New York city on business today, Special City Judge Walter H. Gill presided, and several other cases were brought to his attention.

John Wina of Fall River, Mass., arrested for public intoxication on Broadway on Saturday, was given a suspended sentence provided he left town at once.

Malcolm Clair of Pine street, arrested for public intoxication on Sunday, was fined $5.

Anthony Bowser of Abel street, arrested on disorderly conduct charge in annoying the traffic officer on the Rondout Creek Bridge on Sunday afternoon by walking back and forth across the road, interfering with traffic, was fined $3.

Patrick Glynn of this city, arrested for public intoxication, was fined $5.

There has been much talk of a strike of all union labor in sympathy with the strike in automotive plants. A meeting to further their proposal has been set for tomorrow night.

The Auto-Lite strike involves demands for a closed shop, 10 per cent wage increases, recognition of the workers' union and seniority rights. The chief stumbling block has been the closed shop demand which the company has steadfastly refused to consider.

Communists and outsiders also were lacking at the restricted area as many of their leaders were held incommunicado following arrests by soldiers on information obtained by intelligence corps officers working in plain clothes and mingling with rioters.

A report that 20 Department of Justice agents had been sent in to investigate activities of radicals could not be confirmed at the Federal district attorney's office.

A crowd assembled at St. Stephen's Church in East Toledo, where funeral services for Frank Hubay, 22, and Steven Cygion, 20, killed in Thursday's rioting, were held.

An inquest conducted this afternoon by Coroner Frank G. Kreft is expected to determine whether they were killed by guardsmen's bullets or by shotgun slugs fired by a rioter.

If a peace proposal is reached this evening, it will not become effective unless it meets with the approval of a majority of the union members, who will assemble at 7:30 p. m. It is known that strong pressure is being exerted to permit the reopening of the plant Tuesday to prevent a possible shutdown of automobile plants through lack of auto-lite parts.

Federal mediators will not be through with their task if they settle the Automotive Workers' strike, however. The Electrical Workers' Union has voted to strike Thursday, with a committee empowered to order the walkout before that date if this is deemed advisable. More than half of the local labor unions also have voted to approve a general strike in protest of labor conditions generally here.

Captain J. A. Stark, acting adjutant, announced today that of the 918 soldiers and 65 officers and staff, nine are on the sick list, because of injury or the effects of gas. More than 100 have received first aid treatment since the rioting began.

John Adams Kingsbury, Jr., 18, a senior at Phillips Andover Academy, died in a hospital at Lawrence, Mass., Saturday afternoon, following an automobile accident at Ballardville, Kingsbury and five others were returning to the academy, following a fraternity initiation. It is reported, when their car ran into a tree. Another senior, Howard Pratt Johnson, 17, of Montclair, N. J., is in a critical condition. Johnson and Kingsbury were riding on the running board of the car, on the side which struck the tree.

The Kingsburys, who live at 3 Fairfield Place, Yonkers, have a summer home at Shady.

Widow Gets $8,000 For Husband's Death

Springfield, Mass. (AP)—Damages of $8,000 for the death of Lewis Nolan, late of Wallingford, Conn., which occurred on a Montreal excursion train Aug. 26, 1927, were awarded by a jury today in the suit of Mrs. Rose Nolan against the Boston & Maine Railroad. Nolan was taken ill somewhere between Bellows Falls, Vt., and Montreal and the train crew refused to stop the train so that he might be taken to a hospital, as requested by a physician who happened to be on the train and who attended Nolan. It was contended that with suitable medical treatment Nolan would have recovered.

Mrs. Nolan also brought suit against the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad on the ground that that company sold Nolan the ticket, but that company denied responsibility for anything that occurred after the excursion train passed into control of the Boston & Maine and a verdict for the railroad was returned.

State's Mayors Give Thought To School Aid

Troy, N. Y., May 28 (AP)—Chief executives of all cities in New York state today were considering the appeal of Mayor Cornelius F. Burns of Troy that opposition be organized against further reduction in state aid for schools.

The veteran Troy leader made his proposal in letters mailed over the week-end to members of the state conference of mayors, asking their help in making the issue one of the main questions at the conference convention opening in Jamestown June 13.

Mayor Burns declared "cities have been taking it on the chin to the tune of $15,000,000 in reduced aid," and he charged the state with a "breach of faith."

One of the proposals in his letter to the mayors is that the state conference go on record in favor of a special session of the legislature to pass legislation making up for the decreases of the past two years and prevent additional cuts.

Mr. Burns claims the state guaranteed aid to localities in 1929 and that schools have been living up to standards established then, to obtain the money. He also states a belief, in view of the 1929 law, that the reductions are illegal.

DePriest Aid Cited By Insull Interests At Utilities Hearing

Law Firm Alleged to Have Controlled Funds to "Line Up The Black Vote"—DePriest Had a List of Money to Line Up Candidates.

Washington, May 28 (AP)—Testimony that Senator and Winfield, a Chicago law firm, spent a lot of money "received from Insull utility interests to help Oscar DePriest, before he became a representative from Illinois, "line up the black vote" in local political campaigns was received today by the trade commission in its utilities investigation.

A. M. McDermott, a trade commission investigator, produced records of private hearings before the Internal Revenue Bureau in February, 1929, relating to funds allegedly not disclosed by Senator and Winfield in an income tax return.

Charles Winfield of the law firm, on the stand today, testified he had no recollection of the specific statements made at the internal revenue hearings but that he assumed the internal revenue transcript was correct.

At the 1929 revenue hearing, the transcript quoted Winfield as testifying:

"In 1916 we were one of the main-springs in the Harry Miller campaign for state's attorney and we spent an enormous lot of money in the different newspapers in Chicago."

"Senator Barr was candidate for attorney general. He called me his local manager. We gave him a lot of money in connection with it. I should say he got between $8,000 and $10,000 part of which was from ourselves and part of it from others."

"In addition to that, we gave Oscar DePriest a lot of money in connection with campaigns. He would line up the black vote in connection with some special candidate that we happened to be interested in."

"We gave him money in connection with the people's movement that is run as charitable organizations for the advancing of the colored people and indirectly it was political."

Some of DePriest's fights have cost as much as $10,000 or $15,000 per-haps."

DePriest is the only negro member of Congress.

HERE'S a game that rivals bridge for excitement—proves Lux trumps in the contest to cut down stocking runs!

Mrs. Lathrop Bevan, of Montclair, New Jersey, started the fun at her bridge club. Each member took two pairs of stockings, washed one pair after each wearing with Lux, rubbed the other pair with cake soap. Careful records were kept—at the end of two weeks Lux had cut down runs 75%!

Think what this means to a clothes budget! Lux cuts down runs because it saves stocking elasticity. Silk threads give instead of breaking into runs so often.

Ordinary soaps with harmful alkali and cake soap rubbing weaken elasticity. Don't take chances. Lux has no harmful alkali. Safe in water, safe in Lux.

Decoration Day

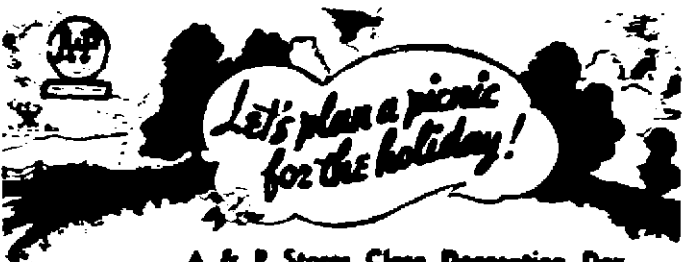

WEEKS ago the advance guard of Spring crept stealthily upon us. Little by little the bedraggled patches of snow, the last defenders of winter's fortress, reluctantly surrendered. Then with a rush the conquering hosts of May came galloping over the hills with a blare of bugles and bravely flaunting banners.

It's the age-old onslaught, the age-old miracle of the victory of eternal life. But always it presents itself anew, flashing with strange beauty, brimming over with inspiration.

Decoration Day is a day of commemoration. Let us make it truly a day of decoration. First, let us trim the hours with garlands of friendly, happy thoughts. Let us take a lesson from Nature, tripping merrily in a new dress, embroidered gaily with bright flowers. A new dress for yourself, Mrs. United States. A new suit for you, Mr. America. New togs for Uncle Sam's little nieces and nephews. A new rug for the porch. Some comfortable wicker chairs with gay cretonne cushions.

Let's brighten up—freshen up—put Winter completely out of our thinking.

For inspiration look to the advertisements in this newspaper. They suggest scores of things you need, things you will enjoy, things of honest value sponsored by manufacturers and merchants on whose statements you can rely.

Heavy Industry Comes To Foreground Today

Washington, May 28 (AP).—The problem of how to help the heavy industries catch up with the economic parade came to the forefront today with two points stressed:

1. Leaders on Capitol Hill expected President Roosevelt to seek passage of the housing program this session.

2. The durable goods industries committee reported to the President that "re-establishment of confidence" on the part of investors was essential to get the ball rolling.

High administration circles feel that the stagnant construction industry—involving directly some 5,000,000 persons—must be stimulated to strike at unemployment and relieve the drain on the treasury and relief efforts.

The President is said to feel that the housing proposal—involving among other things partial government insurance of private loans of certain character—is one of the single efforts toward recovery yet undertaken.

Roosevelt Lightens NRA Code Burdens

Washington, May 28 (AP).—The NRA's burden was lightened measurably today by a presidential order setting up a local self-government rule for many of the coded service industries.

The order created a new recovery administration policy. It suspended price-fixing and other provisions of codes for certain of the service industries as may be designated by the NRA. The hour and wage and other clauses were left intact. Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, will decide which industries would be affected.

The service industries are those selling services rather than goods. It was indicated this change of policy probably would be a forerunner of other clarifications and shifts in the NRA program.

Administrator Johnson is to remain it was learned authoritatively until NRA is on a definitely charted course and has codes clicking smoothly.

Two Potsdam Normal Teachers Were Killed

Tupper Lake, N. Y., May 28 (AP).—Two young teachers of Potsdam Normal School are dead today, fatally injured when their automobile plunged 35 feet from a highway onto a pile of rocks 12 miles north of here.

Miss Anne Garrison of Austin, Texas, believed to have been the driver, was killed instantly and Miss Caroline Hess of Evansville, Ind., died 24 hours later. A third teacher, Miss Louise Russell of Friendship, is in a hospital here in a serious condition.

Shirt and Pajama Workers' Meeting

Workers employed in the shirt and pajama industries in Kingston have been invited to attend a special meeting Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, at the Holy Cross Hall for the purpose of discussing ways of raising standards of work in the cotton garment industry. The meeting is being sponsored by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, a national labor organization with 125,000 members, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

The Rev. A. A. Packard, Jr., chairman of the Citizens' Social Justice Committee, will be one of the speakers. According to Griselda Kuhlman, representative of the organization in Kingston, great progress has been made during the last few weeks in the organization of the shirt and collar workers in the Capitol district. Miss Kuhlman, who was for several years industrial secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has urged all shirt and pajama workers to attend the meeting in order that they may familiarize themselves with proposed changes in the cotton garment code.

Britain Is Uncertain On War Debt Policy

London, May 28 (AP).—The British government's decision regarding its war debts payments due the United States June 15, is still to be reached. It was learned from an unquestionable source today.

From all indications, the government's formal announcement of what it will do on the middle of next month will not be forthcoming until shortly before that date.

All high government officials concerned with the consideration of debts are expected back in London by tomorrow in preparation for the reassembling of parliament. Wednesday, which is ordinarily cabinet day, will provide them with an opportunity to review the debts situation.

Roosevelt Anxious For Congress Wind-up

Washington, May 28 (AP).—President Roosevelt has passed word to Capitol Hill that he wants Congress to adjourn before the war debt payment day in mid-June.

Democratic leaders conceded privately that Mr. Roosevelt wants Congress to enact all the prime administration legislation and adjourn by June 9 if possible, and by no means later than June 15, when the installment on war debts becomes due.

Several Democratic senators privately have discussed delaying the session to learn what the administration plans to do about the war debts on and immediately after the payment day, but thus far no conclusions have been reached.

Slightly Injured When Coupes Crash

A Chrysler coupe and a Ford coupe came together on the turn just west of the West Hurley railroad bridge about five o'clock Sunday morning. The Chrysler was upset and was damaged on its left side and the Ford was badly damaged on its left front. Both cars were towed in to the lane garage.

The Chrysler was being driven toward West Hurley by August Schneider, who was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Burns and Lola Walker, all of New York city. The two women suffered slight bruises about the legs. The Ford, which was going toward Kingston, was driven by Bertram G. Whitaker of Saugerties, who was accompanied by Edgar Tyneon.

Deputy Sheriff Clayton Vredenburg investigated the accident, following a call to the sheriff's office.

New York city has launched a drive against smoking in the subway.

Memorial Services At Kingston Point

Sunday afternoon the annual memorial service for the soldier and sailor dead was held at Kingston Point by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Tappan Camp, No. 1, Sons of Union Veterans. The addresses of the attendees were delivered by the Rev. Howard D. McGrath, pastor of Clinton Avenue M. E. Church, and Mayor C. J. Heiseleman. During the service flowers were strewn on the waters of the Hudson river as a memorial to the hero dead. Arthur H. Brew, commander of the Joyce Schrick Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and John J. Finerty, Jr., commander of Kingston Post of the American Legion, represented those organizations at the exercises. The Salvation Army Band furnished the music, and the ceremony closed with the singing of a hymn by the Legion band and the sounding of taps by a Legion bugler.

Ontario Woman Gives Birth To Five Girls

North Bay, Ont., May 28 (AP).—Mrs. Olivia Dionne gave birth to five girls at her home, a few miles from Collingwood, nine miles south of here, today. All are healthy and "thriving," the attending physician said. Mrs. Dionne is 24 years old and has six other children.

Getting Streets In Shape For Holiday

Although the Works Division of the TERA had suspended all work for a week it was found necessary today to place about 75 men at work patching streets and covering trenches to get the streets in passable condition for the holiday traffic. The full force of approximately 170 men will return to work the week of June 1, the first shift working Friday, Saturday and Monday, and the second shift going to work next Tuesday.

London's famous Tower bridge is getting a scrubbing for the first time in 40 years.

Stillman Memorial Service at Annandale

Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the St. Stephen's College Chapel, at Annandale-on-Hudson, a memorial service will be held in honor of Michael S. Stillman, 21, St. Stephen's sophomore, who was drowned while attempting to cross the Hudson river on the ice, February 1. It is the hope of Mr. and Mrs. Stillman, parents of the deceased, that Kingston and Woodstock friends may be able to attend.

Puneral services for the youth will be held Thursday at his late home, near Montclair, N. J.

A Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER
WASHINGTON — Vice President Garner missed an opportunity in the senate recently to pay something "on account" for political work received from his good friend, William G. McAdoo.

Whether he purposely passed up the chance only "Cactus Jack" himself knows.

It happened this way: Senator McAdoo has been absent from the senate for some time due to illness. When the bill authorizing federal loans to industry came up for consideration, he called on his colleague, Hiram Johnson, to pitch in for him in an effort to obtain adoption of an amendment in which he was particularly interested.

Finance corporation to make a loan to Los Angeles sufficient to acquire the privately owned utility.

The authors of the bill—Glass of Virginia and Barkley of Kentucky—strongly opposed the move on the ground that it would open up the question of loans by the RFC to every community in the country for the purchase or reconstruction of municipal plants.

Johnson put up such a strong plea for McAdoo, however, that the amendment came within an eyelash of passage.

A Tie Vote

THE vote was 17 to 17. Vice President Garner, who had it within his power to break the tie, was not in the chair.

He had been only a short while before just before this vote had retired from the chamber, leaving Senator McAdoo of Kansas presiding.

He didn't return, either, until the whole matter was over.

Johnson was able a little later to get Robinson of Indiana into the chamber to move a reconsideration of the vote, but it was too late. Opponents of the amendment meanwhile managed to marshal additional strength and Johnson was defeated by two votes on the roll call.

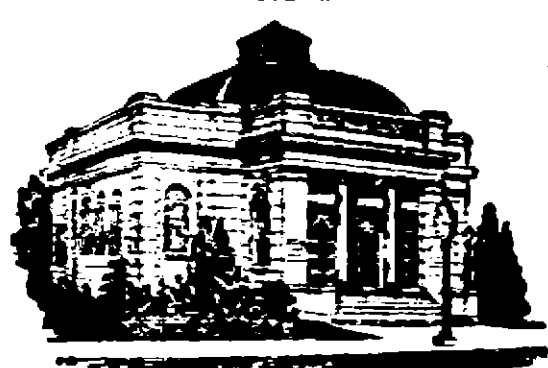

Had the vice president been in the chair on the first vote, however, it might have been a different story.

A California Rider

It seems that in a certain part of the city of Los Angeles there is a privately owned utility supplying power and light in direct competition with the municipally owned plant.

It is the desire of the city to purchase the privately owned plant not only to eliminate competition which have arisen continually, but also because cheaper rates can be given the people than those they now are paying.

McAdoo wanted an amendment attached to the bill which would have authorized the reconstruction

Science reveals important new Facts for Smokers!

Camel Smokers can verify these facts!

A famous New York research laboratory announces a basic discovery that throws new light on our past knowledge of cigarettes. It embodies an "energizing effect" . . . a quick restoration of the flow of natural body energy . . . an experience well known to Camel smokers. When you smoke a Camel you feel an almost immediate relief from fatigue. What has actually happened is that you have released and made available the latent energy in your body. You've helped your body to help itself. During the day your energy curve hits certain low points. Camels raise your flow of energy . . . quickly, conveniently and without jangling your nerves.

mediate relief from fatigue. What has actually happened is that you have released and made available the latent energy in your body. You've helped your body to help itself. During the day your energy curve hits certain low points. Camels raise your flow of energy . . . quickly, conveniently and without jangling your nerves.

There's a "Lift" in CAMELS that drives away Fatigue and Irritability

Feel "all in"? Then's the best time to light a Camel.

It's cool and fragrant and delightful . . . but far more important than that, it brings your flow of energy up from the depths!

You feel fatigue vanish. Irritability seems to slip away. And you go back to work—or play—with the energy and cheerfulness that are naturally yours.

YOU'VE HAD THE EXPERIENCE...HERE'S THE EXPLANATION!

This experience is no news to Camel smokers. But the explanation is news—and good news—to everyone.

The "lift" you get from smoking Camels is simply a release of the natural latent energy in your body. In other words you have helped your body to help itself . . . easily, naturally, and without the slightest strain.

Remember this explanation when your energy curve is "down" . . . times when you're irritable and your brain just doesn't seem to work and you feel too tired to move. At such times . . . "Get a lift with a Camel!"

AND CAMELS NEVER JANGLE YOUR NERVES!

Camel fans smoke frequently—and they can—as often as they like. Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on the nerves.

Keep your flow of energy at a higher level with Camels.

TOO TIRED FOR FUN...and then she smoked a Camel!

CAMEL'S Costlier Tobaccos never get on your Nerves

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

KNOW THIS FEELING? The feeling of being too "all in" to respond to the gaiety of the crowd? No taste for the pleasure and fun of the sort of social evening that you would ordinarily look forward to? That's one of the many times to light a Camel, enjoying its rich flavor while your flow of natural, healthful energy is restored. You'll like Camels—a matchless blend of costlier tobaccos

"Get a LIFT with a Camel!"

Unemployed Rioters Keep Police Active

John and Neale in Court Today By 200 in Aftermath of Saturday's Clash—10 Arraigned.
New York, May 28 (AP)—The clash of conflict between riotous and police swelled in an ominous crescendo toward the arraignment today of a group of demonstrators. Twenty patrolmen were posted about the dingy Tombs court today in an attempt to check the bitter strife of the last two days. One thousand men and women rioted Saturday outside the department of welfare offices. Two hundred of them jeered and hoisted in court yesterday, then fought the police in the streets as ten of their number were arraigned. Today the same ten came to court for another hearing, with two others—man and wife who were beaten in the court riot. The couple, James Leachay, 27, a teacher, and Mrs. Rose Leachay, 22, were the focal point of the court fight as they remonstrated when they were driven from the room, and Leachay cried: "Leave us alone." The woman was struck down and kicked, while Leachay protested, "that's my wife, leave her alone." He was carried off bodily by officers. Pleading with officers and crying, "we're willing to go," he was hit over the head with a patrolman's stick, and kicked as he lay unconscious, several witnesses said. Over the wounds of the males, Captain Daniel Ahern shouted, "men, use your brains," and turning to reporters, said: "we're doing the best we can. I'm sorry." Two reporters, attempting to interview for the couple, were slapped, and a score of radicals, their sympathizers, and onlookers were struck. The strife was provoked by the outcalls which greeted Magistrate Leonard A. McGee when he ordered two prisoners, arrested in the Saturday outbreak, held under $1,500 bail on charges of felonious assault for a hearing today. After Leachay regained consciousness, he and his wife were returned to the court and held in $100 bail for a hearing today on charges of disorderly conduct.

HOW GOES THE BATTLE? MAN vs. MACHINE

How are the nations tackling the problem of the machine and technological unemployment? This is the fourth in a series of nine articles from as many countries dealing with this question.

IV. France

By M. K. WHITELEATHER

Paris (AP)—Frenchmen in overalls, instead of fearing the machine, are trying to master it.

They see the machine as an instrument of progress capable of giving them more leisure, rather than as a huge monster threatening to rob them of their bread.

The French General Labor Confederation takes this view, but isolated outbursts bob up from time to time to indicate some fear that the machine is an enemy of labor.

A textile machine recently was smashed by angry workers in the north of France who were dismissed because their hands were no longer needed. This recalled similar incidents of a century ago when the first machine process was set up in the Lyons silk industry and when the first steamboat to appear in France was sunk by laborers.

Labor Unions' Program

The battle of labor unions is to force employers to accompany industrialization with social progress and to diminish working hours in order to re-employ men thrown out of jobs. The labor program is threefold, calling for reduction of hours, better working conditions and greater participation by workers in running businesses.

France did not have to deal with industrialization until after the war. Mechanization of factories was carried out during the war by the government in order to meet demands of that conflict. Now a movement is on foot to aid agriculture and to limit uses of the machine.

Artisans' Predominate

State laws, however, are confined to protection against injury and to greater responsibility by large industrial concerns. Otherwise, as far as the state is concerned, the machine is free to expand.

The effects of industrialization have not been felt in France as much as in America, Great Britain and Germany. The small workshop with from one to 10 workers prevails in France and artisans with their shops, kitchen and bedroom side by side predominate.

The venerable industry of wine-making has gone mechanical in France. Here is a scene in a bottling factory where the bottles are transported mechanically to be cased and shipped.

The automobile industry is one of the most highly mechanized, while production of artificial gas by modern methods has eliminated 50 per cent of former laborers.

500 Persons Infected With Trench Mouth

Albany, N. Y., May 28 (AP)—State health officials were in the midst of a concerted drive today to check the spread of an epidemic of Vincent's Angina, or "trench mouth", in Livingston county and surrounding territory.

Stating at east 500 persons, two thirds of them children, had been affected in Danville, Genesee, Livingston and other communities, the state authorities asked physicians and health officers to make full reports on all cases.

Health department records show most of the cases thus far have been typical clinically, the disease being characterized by extensive or fairly extensive ulceration of the oral or pharyngeal mucous membrane, sometimes accompanied by fever and constitutional symptoms like those of bronchitis. It was stated the disease yields to the neocars phenamine treatment.

The Danville village board is co-operating in the campaign, having appropriated funds to treat patients.

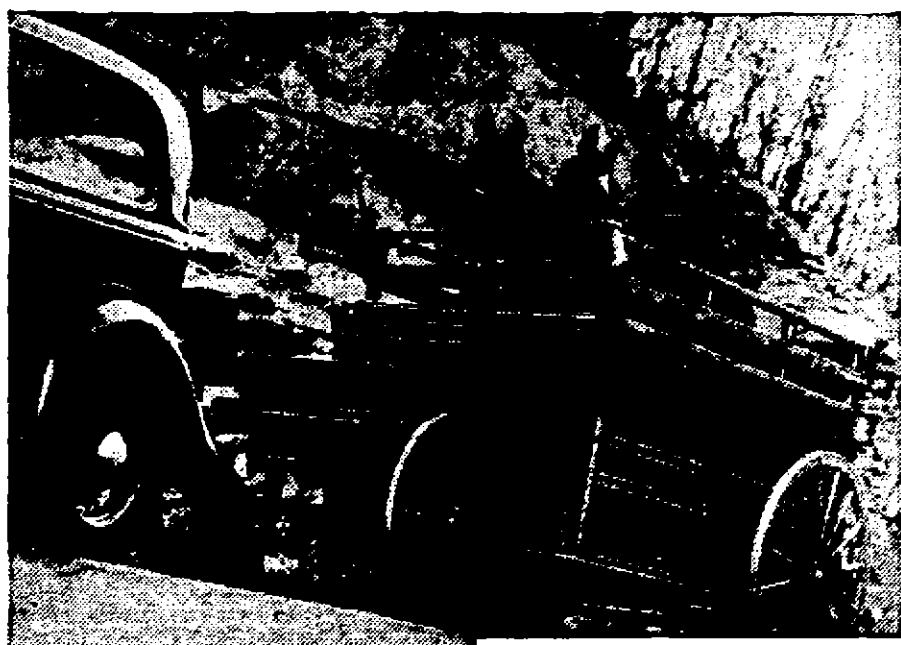

Vegetable Plants For Relief Gardens

Roy Jacobs, who has charge of the relief gardens in Kingston this year, stated this morning that he would be ready to distribute tomato, cabbage and pepper plants on Tuesday. There are about 80 municipal gardens this year located at Fair street extension and those who have these gardens can get their plants there tomorrow. There will also be about 200 home gardens and those who have a home garden can get their plants at the commissary in the water board barn adjoining the city hall that day.

GULF WINS MORE "HILL TESTS" THAN 32 GASOLINES COMBINED

A BORROWED FORD tests 12 competing gasolines on Madbrough Hill, near West Point, Ky., to see which gas can pull the car and 3500-lb. load farthest up hill in high gear.

Will your car have more power on any one gasoline? HERE'S YOUR ANSWER...

Gulf tested a total of 33 gasolines on famous American hills—12 hills in localities from Massachusetts to Georgia—and here is what they found...

The power of different gasolines varies widely! And of all 33 gasolines, Gulf is uniformly best. 7 out of 12 times, it propelled a car and load up mountain grades farther than any other gasoline tested!

It won more hill tests than 32 other gasolines combined! Prove it! Drive into a Gulf station, fill up, and test the power of That Good Gulf for yourself!

HOW 33 GASOLINES RANKED (IN ALL HILLS TO DATE)

All gasoline tested, except a few "third grade" brands, sold for approximately the same price at that Gulf Station. Each brand is denoted by a letter.

Landis, Pecora May Regulate Stock Group

Washington, May 25 (AP)—The names of James M. Landis and Ferdinand Pecora, figured prominently today in speculation over the personnel of the new commission to regulate the stock markets.

Landis is a member of the Federal Trade Commission. His transfer to the new commission, probably as chairman, was understood in administration circles to be almost assured. During the controversy over the stock bill it was reported that one of the reasons President Roosevelt favored market control by the Federal Trade Commission was to avoid the necessity of changing Landis' job.

Landis, still in his thirties, is a former teacher of law at Harvard. He played an important part in the drafting of the stock market bill.

Pecora, who gained nationwide attention as counsel for the Senate banking committee during its Wall Street investigation, was considered by administration advisors on Capitol Hill to be an outstanding candidate for one of the five commission posts.

The former immigrant boy had much to do with drafting the stock bill.

Congressional leaders believe the stock market bill will be passed by the end of the week.

At The Theatres

Today

Kingston: "Manhattan Melodrama." One of the biggest and better shows is this unusually noteworthy drama of two brothers who rise in the world along different paths, one a gambler, the other a lawyer who mixes politics with his profession and climbs high. The carefree, reckless gambler is well portrayed by Clark Gable, and the sincere, cautious lawyer is brilliantly enacted by William Powell. Gable haunts the gambling dens of the big city while Powell seeks to clean up these same places and make them respectable. Along with this different viewpoint between the two men, they are both in love with the same girl, and she is in love with both of them, a mess if there ever was one. Against a background of excitement, humor, romance, gambling and racing, this talkie moves along briskly and intelligently from the opening flash. It is one of the best of the current films, and its excellent direction and cast leave little to be desired. Myrna Loy is also featured in the large cast. Worth seeing.

Orpheum: "Dance Girl Dance." Broadway, long a familiar topic for struggling young actors and actresses, is again spotlighted in this musical show that is as well conceived as the hundreds of others before it. Most of the action takes place in a night club, where some happy dance numbers are performed along with a bit of song. It seems that Evelyn Knapp, in the role of a dancer, can't get along with her husband-partner, played by Eddie Nugent. They are a couple of vaudeville coifers, but when Evelyn joins up with a night club and has the patrons attracted to her artistry, husband and wife make up and all is happy along the great white way. Alan Dinehart is also in the cast.

Broadway: "Double Door." and "Harold Teen." Truly fascinating, the opening feature is one of those horror plays with an abundance of well-timed shocking shadows on the wall and clanking walls, evil, leering faces, and a host of other things that are not to mention. Billings as a female Frankenstein monster, Mary Morris certainly does her best to be something to lose one's hair about, and she stalks through the film, a brooding mystery. The play concerns a double door in a great mansion. What lies behind that double door is the mystery "Harold Teen", the famous comic strip adolescent, comes to the screen in the personable Hal LeRoy. The producers have made another musical comedy out of the story, and along with some clever dances, songs and the well trained feet of dancer LeRoy, this little talkie is fairly an raging entertainment. Of special interest to Kingston fans is the presence of Chie Chandler in the cast. A featured player on the bill, Mr. Chandler handles the comedy lead and he just about steals the show. Patricia Ellis, Rochelle Hudson, Guy Kibbee, and Hugh Herbert are also in the cast.

Governor Has Signed 847 of 1,111 Bills

Albany, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Governor Lehman, completing action on the 777 bills left with him when the 1934 legislature adjourned four weeks ago, today enacted into law the Fearon bill empowering counties to draft and adopt government charters to be submitted to the electorate for approval or disapproval.

He said, however, that constitutional restrictions which he has sought to have amended "to bring about the reorganization of county and town government in a comprehensive, effective and worthwhile manner" may prevent the preparation of a "really comprehensive and efficient charter."

His proposal for a constitutional amendment to permit formulation of new forms of county government "not limited by the many rigid and hampering requirements and prohibitions now contained in the constitution" was defeated in the Republican-controlled assembly after passing the upper house.

The governor expressed belief that the bill, on the other hand, "may prove of some benefit in certain counties during the short period of time before a constitutional amendment is passed by the legislature and approved by the people."

Governor Lehman signed 847 of the 1,111 bills passed by the legislature. He left Saturday for New York City for a brief rest before returning to the capital.

Lights of New York

by L. L. STEVENSON

When the new state hospital at Breewood is completed, the insane population of Long Island, beyond the limits of Brooklyn, will exceed the same population. There are already hospitals at Kings Park, Central Islip and Greenvale with the limits of Long Island. The Breewood institution has been completed to a point where it has a population of 1,000 patients. Eventually it will have a total population of 2,000. That is equivalent to a city the size of Gary, Ind., or Lowell, Mass., and only a few thousand short of a city the size of Utica, N. Y. Incidentally, according to the last census, there are only 73 cities in the United States with a population of 10,000 or more. The Breewood institution has been years in building and will take more years to complete, the state's investment running into many millions.

Not only as to size alone is the Breewood hospital unique. For instance, there is a new method of handling patients. The manner of feeding is an example. Instead of being massed at long tables and having food served to them, all patients who are able, go to a cafeteria, carry their trays around and select what they want to eat just as do many thousands of normal persons in New York each day. Attendants are not uniformed. In the bakery, the attendant in charge is garbed just as is every other head baker. The laundry attendant in appearance is merely a foreman. Every attempt is made to make the patients feel that they are not in an institution and under guard but that they are normal people engaged in normal occupations.

Breewood is also a city sufficient unto itself. It has a central power plant which supplies services of various kinds. There is also a complete water works system, the water being pumped four miles away and carried to the institution in great mains. Incidentally, the power plant burns 130 tons of coal a day.

Wondered what had become of the rum runners now that prohibition is only a memory. Learned recently that two of them are on Broadway. They are not following any racket, however. The ex-bald head men of the sea are now a dancing team appearing in one of the tango palaces. Learned also that another rum dealer, who used to ride around in a big bullet-proof car, still does. But he has turned it into a taxicab and does not inform his passengers that should shooting start, they would be safe.

Then there is Albert H. Wiggin, former chairman of the board of the Chase National bank whose deals in his bank's stocks, supposed to have netted him $10,000,000, and his $100,000 annual pension, loomed large in the public eye only a short time ago. Mr. Wiggin's principal task now is dodging publicity. He has a modest office on Pine street where he looks after the various holdings of his family and himself and a residence down at Charleston, S. C., where he spends his spare time. He also collects etchings, purchasing those that appeal to him whether or not the etcher be known and whether or not he be still alive.

No use mentioning the name of this man. Sufficient is it to say that not so long ago he was a power in Wall Street. But recently, when his pet dog became ill, he found it impossible to pay a small hospital charge. One of his former clerks finally loaned him enough to redeem his pet. He carries with him a long string of clippings pasted neatly together. They tell of the fall of the financial house of which he was the head.

Tiny Worm Forecasts

Weather for Arizonan

Alzada, Mont.—There are many and varied ways of telling what future weather conditions may be—but Peter Niemann, Sr., will stack his against the lot.

Peter has a little worm—and as the worm turns, so does the weather, according to the venerable prophet. Let Peter explain his system:

"Now, if this worm is all white (in early fall), we shall have a heavy snow all winter. If his head is white, we shall have snow the fore part of the winter, and if his tail is white, we shall have snow in the latter part of the winter."

Niemann unveiled his weather vane worm last fall amid a gathering of local citizens. He squinted at it carefully and announced, "We shall have no snow to amount to anything until the twenty-first of March."

Alzada's first heavy snowfall of the winter came March 21.

Spread of Gypsy Moth

Curbed by West Wind

Washington.—If the wind had been blowing from the east instead of from the west and northwest when New England was infested with the destructive gypsy moth, the central part of the country would more than likely have been part of a very large area to receive these pests.

Federal entomologists have discovered that the minute first-stage larvae of the gypsy moth float in the air currents at an altitude of 2,000 feet above the earth.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, May 28 (P).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets)—The following quotations represent prices on sales by commission merchants and other original receivers on the New York city downtown wholesale district up to 8 a. m.

Heavy receipts of new crop potatoes resulted in a price decline but the demand was considerably more active. A large volume of wholesale transactions on cobbler potatoes, U. S. No. 1, were made at $2.50-2.75 per barrel.

Strawberry arrivals were heavier and there was a drastic price decline. Most of the sales on various varieties in quart baskets were reported at 6-8 occasionally as high as 9-10, some real fancy quality strawberries, however, commanded 12-14, while poorer worked out at 4-5.

California red raspberries in half pint baskets changed hands at mainly 10.

Low prices features the wholesale market for snap beans. Bushel baskets of the Bountiful or Green Flat variety ranged widely in quality and condition and peddled out from 25-1.00 per bushel hamper while the wax or yellow variety sold at 25-1.50.

Green corn was in more plentiful supply. Offerings varied greatly in quality and condition and shipments in crates realized from 2.25-2.75, occasionally as high as 3.00.

Big Boston lettuce and Romaine was in more liberal receipt and values declined. Crates of two dozen heads jobbed out at mostly 1.00-1.25 and Romaine at 75-1.00.

"Dog Days"

Contrary to popular belief, the tendency of dogs to become afflicted with rabies does not explain the name "dog days," observes G. R. Turner, writing in the Kansas City Times. Both the ancient Egyptians and the Romans observed that the period of their greatest heat was usually from July 3 to August 11, a period coincidental with the heliacal rising and setting of Sirius, the brightest of all stars and popularly called "the Dog Star." These days, they believed, were warmer because the air was charged with the combined heat of Sirius and the sun.

More than 2,000 persons in New York were active in soliciting funds recently to aid Jews in Germany.

FASHIONS By ELEANOR GUNN

Embroidery as a Summer Hat Decoration

(Copyright, 1934, by Fairchild)

The smaller model illustrated above is of white linen, the brim embroidered in red and blue, and finished with a navy belting band and unembroidered bow in front.

The larger hat is of yellow peasant linen, with the edge embellished with eyelet embroidery, and contrasted with a brown belting bow.

Lace Beret Is Charming

Net hats for net costumes have already been featured; Suzanne Talbot does some charming things with white starched Blanche lace hats, matching these to match colors and gloves.

A decided feeling for the sheer summer hat has sprung up and, linked with it, to make it seem newer, are berets and turbans. Schlaparelli, in her midseason opening, made a strong feature of lace, developing berets, pulled forward, in this medium.

The beret of lace is entirely harmonious in style, and decidedly practical from the standpoint of the dance floor, even though the Paris original sends "it to town" with suits. Schlaparelli's idea may be extended to turbans, either entirely of lace, or of malle and lace combined.

Charming, That's What Clothes Are

New York—Excepting for the fact that you have to do a bit of pressing on arriving from anywhere with a suit case, there is no cause to grumble at your lot, Miss 1934 Summer Girl. Your pre-reveal sisters had it over you in the respect that they could crowd a whole week's wardrobe into a week-end case and have room to spare, but compared to the lovely frills and furbelows you wear what had she?

Today's clothes give a girl a break by making it possible for her to "pretty" herself. Instead of being expected to do something for her clothes, her clothes do something for her. And that's something. Take the dress sketched, and I'm sure you'd love to, who couldn't help being prettier than usual in it. To begin with, pink is a very kindly color to most. Fabric and style are in a conspiracy to make one look slender and young. It isn't all done by sashes but they do help. Everywhere one goes to dances there are sashes galore, some of velvet ribbon, but more often they are of taffeta.

By this time everybody knows that ribbons are important. They are worn in the hair, funny though it may sound, it is anything but funny, and they are worn in bow effects, for bands, panels and blindings. There was quite a furor over ribbons at the last dressmaker openings in Paris. As usual, milliners are holding fast to ribbon although they occasionally get along with fruit or flowers. And speaking of millinery there is nothing smarter in the world than the new lace berets. Don't they sound smart? It's quite possible you have not met one face to face since they made one of the latest news flashes from Paris. But wait until you see how charming a lace beret is, just by way of change from the huge capelines which are difficult to manage when dancing.

ON LOOKING BACK

Pink net is posed over satin of the same shade in the beruffled dress, the skirt of which is ruffled, appearing in cascade effect at front. The ruffling is also high at front. Blue satin makes the mesh, also the tiny ribbon banding the hair.

OUR DAILY PATTERN

Neat Gingham House Frock

8196. For something new and smart, make your next house frock in plaid gingham, cut on diagonal lines, as shown here in the sketch. The dress is completely simple to make, no fancy details to annoy the home dressmaker, yet the result is very charming and most becoming. The white jabot collar which falls in soft ripples, is effective when made in handkerchief linen and the sash and dress could be in blue or green plaid. Note the deep pointed yoke on both front and back of the skirt. This has a slenderizing effect and the skirt flares just sufficiently to give room for action and still not be too full.

Designed in sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 38 requires 3 1/2 yards of 35 inch material with 3/4 yard contrasting.

Placing Steel on Bridge.

Steel is being placed on the Mt. Tremper-Mt. Pleasant bridge. The steel workers arrived last week and already the Mt. Pleasant span is in place. This is one of the county bridges which went out last summer with the flood and is being replaced with a modern concrete and steel bridge.

Cherry Upside Down Cake

This cake will delight every one:

1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons butter
1 cup sugar
2 cups drained, sweetened cherries

Warm the butter, add the sugar and mix well. Add well beaten egg and vanilla to milk. Sift the dry ingredients together and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Heat the butter in a heavy pan or skillet, add the sugar and heat until it starts to caramelize. Spread the cherries over this and cover with the cake mixture. Smooth the top with a knife. Bake in the top of a moderate oven (325 degrees F.) 45 minutes. Loosen the sides of the cake, turn it out carefully, upside down. Serve with whipped cream.

This is one of a series of recipes prepared for this paper by the Consumers Information Service of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets. Watch for others.

Forests Hire Nearly 5,000 More Workers

The Forest Service has increased the number of employees on its rolls on PWA projects in the National Forests by nearly 5,000 men in the last six weeks, it was announced today at the U. S. Department of Agriculture. A summary of reports from all ten forest regions show that 12,951 were on the rolls May 21.

Emergency employees on Forest Service projects come usually from communities adjacent to National Forests. The increase in number at this time is due to the usual expansion of spring activities, such as planting, road building, and measures for prevention of forest fires. The Public Works activities in forestry were adopted last summer as an emergency relief measure, provided for under the Industrial Recovery Act, and at the peak of the season near the end of 1933, about 9,000 were employed during the winter. The Public Work program is being conducted separately from, and in addition to the conservation work assigned to the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Public Works activities under direction of the Forest Service include three classes—forest development work, forest improvement, and research. The development work includes building of forest development roads and trails, for which $10,000,000 was allotted from Public Works funds last year. Many of the trails are truck trails, facilitating both the development of broader public use of the forests and their protection from fire. People who visit or tour the national forests this year will find greatly extended facilities for travel.

Workers in the forest improvement division, for which an emergency fund of $15,982,745 was provided, are being employed at planting, insect and disease control, timber stand improvement, estimating timber resources, revegetation of forest ranges, rodent control, eradication of plants poisonous to livestock, erection of buildings, development of water supplies for public camps and many other activities.

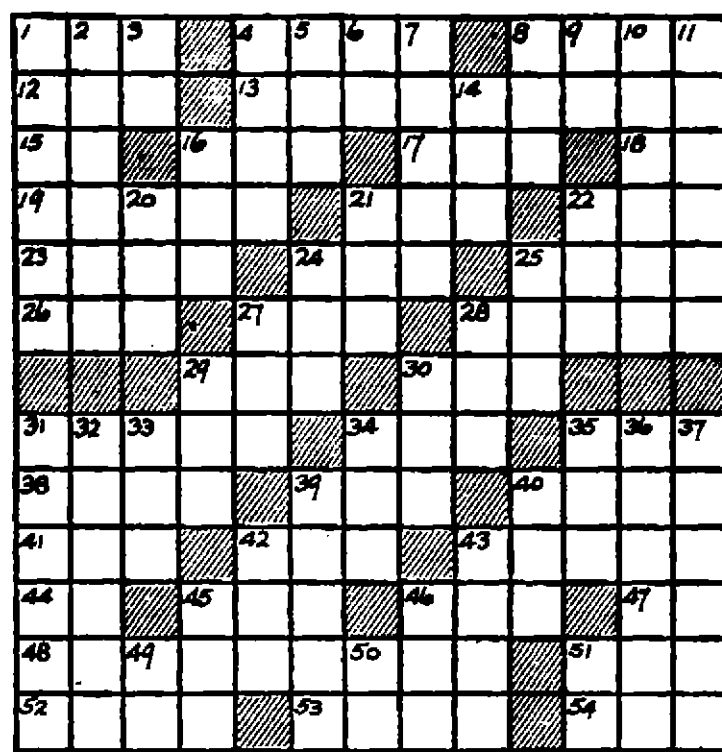

Recent increases in forest employment are largely in the Northern Rocky Mountain and Intermountain regions, with some gains in portions of the Eastern and Lake States region. Decreases in some of the regions have already taken place, where circumstances called for rapid use of allotments or completion of projects during favorable weather early last winter. Allotments of recovery forest work funds for the year will soon be entirely exhausted in some districts.

Authorities say it is better to take in an "alley cat" than a Siamese kitten. Unknown heredity, because of the breed's unreliable dispositions.

FIVE POINT MISSION

APPEALS FOR AID

Editor
Kingston Freeman,
Kingston, New York.
Dear Sir:

The Five Point Mission, on the lower East Side of New York, will open its Fresh Air Home at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, for the thirty-ninth season on June 22.

The mothers and children look forward eagerly to the happy days when they exchange the dirt and heat of the city for the beautiful surroundings at Cornwall.

Last year nearly 600 mothers and children were greatly benefited by the rest, recreation, and nourishing food they received as guests of the mission.

Many of our friends, when planning their own vacation have not failed to send in at least $5.00 to maintain a mother and baby for a week at the Fresh Air Home.

This year we are opening the home as a venture of faith. We closed last year with a considerable deficit—may we appeal to the public through your paper to help sustain this worthy charity.

Please make checks payable to Miss Florence Carmichael, treasurer, 69 Madison street, New York city.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE W. CRINGTON,
Superintendent.

"IT'S EASY, Mr. Neuman TO RELIEVE THAT Headache!"

says Dr. V——* to prominent New York accountant

* Dr. V—— is a well known New York physician, whose signed statement is on record in New York. We omit his name out of courtesy to the accepted custom of the medical profession.

When you get one of those nagging sick headaches—follow the advice of Dr. V——! Positive relief comes quickly... as soon as you get rid of the real cause!

How miserable you feel with those nagging sick headaches! Yet how easily you can be rid of them—once you get at the cause!

And, nine times out of ten, the real cause, say doctors, is the accumulation of toxic wastes in your intestinal tract.

These poisonous wastes exert pressure on the nerves of your intestines—the reason for your headaches. The poisons themselves are picked up by your blood stream and spread throughout your entire body. No wonder you feel listless, tired and run-down!

You must free your system of these wastes and poisons! For nearly forty years, doctors have prescribed Sal Hepatica as the safe, sure, quicker way to do this. For Sal Hepatica is utterly different from other types of laxatives.

Why Sal Hepatica is Different—More Efficient

1. It is a Mineral Salt Laxative. It flushes the system clear of poisonous wastes and aids Nature to restore the natural balance of body fluids.
2. Its action results from osmotic (a gentle, thorough flushing) and not from irritation.
3. It acts promptly. No hours of waiting to upset your day.
4. No "dragged-out" feeling afterwards—for Sal Hepatica does not deplete body tissues of fluid.

So take Sal Hepatica at the first sign of clogged intestines. And thus aid Nature to keep you free from colds, grippe, rheumatic pains, upset stomach and many other common troubles.

Dr. Textor Spoke On Russia At Rockhurst

Vassar College Professor Tells of Conditions Under Soviet, And in Moscow—Mrs. Owens and Miss Van Slyke Were Hostesses.

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Minnie Van Slyke Owens and Miss Ellen Van Slyke, honorary members of the Athabartion Club, entertained that club, the members of the former Monday Club and friends at an afternoon tea at their beautiful home, Rockhurst, at which time Dr. Lucy Textor, of Vassar College, was the guest speaker.

Dr. Textor, an honored friend of both clubs, had addressed them on previous occasions on the same subject, "Russia," telling of experiences in that country. Her address on Saturday afternoon was a very delightful and personal description, in interesting detail of her last visit to Russia in 1932 at which time she was accompanied by a small group of Vassar students.

Dr. Textor compared conditions as she found them in 1928 and in 1932, showing a marked change in many ways.

On her earlier visit, Dr. Textor went as a teacher of English and a writer, therefore as a "worker." In this way she had an actual part in the earlier stages of the "Five Year" plan in Soviet Russia.

This last time she went as an American tourist. The party made its first stop at the most important hotel in Leningrad. Dr. Textor found the rooms comfortable and better than on her previous visit, with more pretense as to service and style, but the food was no better.

On the 1932 visit it was found to be a mistake to offer foreign—American—money to any individual as it would have to be immediately passed on to the government which needed it to purchase machinery with.

Now it is possible for travelers in Russia to spend the money of their own country.

The speaker told of a thrifty German colony on the banks of the Volga, which in spite of cooperative farming with, say, some 500 lazy Russian laborers had been forced to lose its identity. It is now Russian.

The descriptions of many episodes incident to the traveling from place to place were also very interesting and informing.

They visited one of the cooperative farms, but it was of such vast extent that they saw little of it as so land under cultivation, but what they did see of the land and machinery was not unlike what one might see in Montana, here. The lives of the people on these farms is so dull that they are always moving on to find something better and more adventurous.

Much more entertaining was Dr. Textor's description of their visit to beautiful Sorci, the Russian Riviera. There the party had the unique experience of remaining over night in the place of heavenly blue skies and golden sands, staying in the hotel where the officials of Russia alone were supposed to stay, but which Dr. Textor succeeded in persuading the manager to allow the American party to occupy overnight.

In their further travels they learned that certain beauty and rest places in Russia were assigned to certain groups of workers as the place to which they must go for their vacation-like rest. No one went from their own choice to some special resort, but to the place appointed for them by the government.

They visited one former Jewish city where now there is not a soul to be found.

The mode of transportation has changed greatly. Outside their hotel they found many Lincoln cars ready and waiting to take them wherever they wished to go. In 1932 the rooms at the hotel were $12 a day, with De Luxe rooms $20 and some as high as $30, whereas in 1932 they ran from $5 to $7 a day. There were Lincoln cars at the railroad stations. In 1932, another difference in conditions at the time of Dr. Textor's earlier visit.

In Moscow the conditions were quite different. The old grand hotels had become dilapidated and were either being repaired and renovated or torn down and new ones were taking their place. Dr. Textor and her party stayed at the new Moscow Hotel, overlooking the Kremlin. There is but one entrance and one great corridor where it seemed as though the whole world was congregating. It was exceedingly spacious and it seemed as though several palaces had been joined for its elegant furnishings.

But all was not so well in the dining room. Peasants from the fields were the poorly trained waiters, making for anything but comfortable meals, and the food was scarce.

Dr. Textor then described a visit to one of the old 12th century towns, and of the possibility of making a study of the psychology of the people. They were cheerful but had very scanty food. Nothing could be bought there off the beaten track. And there was absolutely nothing to eat that could be purchased.

After this stop they went on to the South. Dr. Textor noted the fact that at every railroad station there were numberless people with their bundles of clothing waiting to be transported to some other and better place in which to find employment.

In Odessa they were none too warm and there was a marked scarcity of food. Yet at the theatre there they saw a wonderful performance of Madame Butterfly. One of Russia's oldest cities, Kiev, was visited.

There they visited the monastery of St. Sofia, where they heard the most beautiful music one could think of and found real worship.

In a few general remarks, Dr. Textor informed her hearers that the Russian government was becoming more interested in doing and having things in American fashion, as to so-called, dress, etc. This did not indicate any communistic leaning, but was lightening any too serious dissatisfaction with the outcome of the Five Year plan in the minds and lives of the proletariat.

In closing, Dr. Textor said they were manufacturing more materials of every sort in Russia, along with textile lines. Cooperative farming community factories, etc., are on the increase. But the speaker did not at all believe that such facts were indicative of any trend toward capitalism but rather toward a new type of society, the Soviet Union. On the whole Dr. Textor who has always been hopeful for the future good of Russia was perhaps a bit more sanguine after her 1932 visit there than when she was a resident there in 1928.

After Dr. Textor's lecture, she was most cordially welcomed by her many many friends and admirers. Afternoon tea was served, with Mrs. William Lawton, who was the last president of the Monday Club, and Mrs. Charles Terwilliger, president of the Athabartion Club, presiding over the beautifully appointed tea table with its lovely decorations of spring flowers.

The members of the Athabartion Club served the guests and all greatly enjoyed the hour of converse with friends.

OPENING OF SHANGHAI LOO REPORTED A HUGE SUCCESS

The management of Shanghai Loo, Chinese-American restaurant, which opened in the Fein building on Wall street last week, announced that the opening was a huge success and that many of the old customers who formerly patronized the King Sun Loo restaurant at the same location were among the customers. Due to the unusually large crowds which attended the opening last Thursday the management was unable to properly care for the customers but additional help will be secured so that in future the former good service will be maintained. An additional waiter and bus boy will be added to the staff. The management of the new restaurant is under the former employees of King Sun Loo.

BOY SCOUT OFFICIALS WILL MEET HERE TONIGHT.

The quarterly meeting of the Boy Scout officials of the Kingston District will take place in the Governor Clinton Hotel tonight at 7:45. Plans will be completed for the operation of the summer program, including the summer camp. Also discussions will cover topics of: Reaching more boys with a more effective program, the question of summer district rallies, and other items of importance to all Scout troops.

It is expected that this will be a well attended and enthusiastic meeting.

Puffin, Birdland Clown, Has Comical Expression

Equally at home in the air, on land, and in water, the puffin has been called the clown of birdland. There is no bird with so comical an expression, or one which appears so unconcerned as you approach, says Tit-Bits Magazine.

There are colonies of many thousands in the British Isles, the largest being found on St. Kilda. It would be difficult to estimate the numbers on the steep slopes of that desolate, seagirt isle.

The puffin makes its nesting home at the end of a short burrow in the ground, and at the end one large white egg is laid. The young puffin is a pretty little black fluffy ball, and during the time it lives in its underworld nest the parents bring quantities of small fish, for when it comes to diving they are a match for almost any fish they meet. Each parent brings in its beak anything up to ten fish.

Gannets or solan geese, large sea birds, are clever divers, and while searching for prey they fly at a height up to three hundred feet. When the fish is sighted the birds close their wings and streak down at terrific speed.

Entering the water they make a tremendous splash, but seldom come up without their catch. Some fishermen declare that the gannet dives direct on to its prey and does not use its feet when traveling under water, but as gannets have been captured in nets at a depth of ninety feet this statement cannot be accepted. Many diving birds use wings and feet under water, and there is little doubt that the gannet does so, for it travels at high speed when chasing its prey. A bird under water must have power to twist and turn rapidly if it is to catch the fish.

ADVERTISE IN THE FREEMAN AND REAP THE REWARDS.

McLarnin, Ross Battle Tonight, Betting Odds Favor Jimmy, 7-5

New York, May 28 (AP).—Jimmy McLarnin will stake his welterweight championship against Barney Ross tonight with the outcome of the bout in doubt that fully 25,000 fans will follow their way into Madison Square Garden's Long Island bowl to see what all the shouting is about.

McLarnin's personal popularity in New York plus the 10-pound bill he will enjoy in weight were reflected in the betting odds that favored him at 7 to 5 today. There were many competent critics, however, who thought the speedy Ross, champion of the lightweights, would outbox the Irishman and earn the decision in 15 rounds.

In seeking to add the welterweight title to his collection, Ross will defy one of the ring's modern axioms to the effect that you can't spot McLarnin weight and hope to beat him. McLarnin's plan of battle against lighter and speedier foes is simplicity itself: "Just get 'em in a corner and give it to 'em with both hands."

Ross faces the issue with serene confidence. It was upon his insistence that the match was signed. He's convinced he can beat Jimmy.

Points in Ross' Favor.

Ross has at least three factors in his favor—he is younger, he is flatter and, perhaps most important of all, he has done plenty of hitting the last year or two. Except for training, McLarnin hasn't put on a glove since he won the title by knocking out Young Corbett at San Francisco last May 29.

Whatever the result, their meeting will mark the temporary end of the depression that has hit the boxing business. Gross receipts probably will reach close to $250,000. The milk fund is co-promoter of the bout with the Garden.

The rival fighters weigh in at noon today. Although the welterweight limit is 147 pounds, McLarnin will have to scale 145 or less in order to conform to a private agreement he made with Ross and save himself forfeit money of $10,000.

Starting Time 9 p. m.

In the event of rain the fight scheduled to go on about 9 p. m. eastern standard time, will be shifted to tomorrow night and then to Wednesday if necessary.

North Rondouters Shellack Hurons At Hasbrouck, 14-8

Joe Boots Stars On Mound For Sorbals, Striking Out Seven And Making Two Hits—The Men Pounded Two Pitchers For 15 Hurons.

Sunday afternoon at Hasbrouck Park, the North Rondouters Social Club pummeled the Huron Indians of Stone Ridge, 14-8, in a game that saw Joe Boots of Saugerties star on the mound for the Fourth Ward club by striking out seven batters and allowing only two hits to 15 strikes by Shea and Laverie of the Redskins.

Boots himself was among the leading hitters for the Sorbals, others being Mitchell, Raskoski and Gardner. Kelder, Hoyer and Youniss also did the way to the Hurons.

Committing five errors, the Hurons seemed off their game and were not so fast as in previous tilts this year. They hope to reverse the decision in their next contest with the men of Jimmy DeClen when they meet in a return game on July 22.

Memorial Day the Hurons will stack up against the Hercules at Port Ewen.

Don Clark Only Kingston Man To Take A First In DUSO Meet

Saturday the DUSO track meet was held at Newburgh where Kingston took one first place, winning the high jump when Don Clark, local altitude jumper, topped the bar for 5 feet 3 inches. This makes Clark the All-DUSO champion in the high jump.

Kingston, which was represented by a picked squad of only 11 men, took fourth place in the meet. The locals scored 16 points. If the Maroon and White had scored two more points they would have taken third place.

Besides Clark's first, other local men placed as follows: Clyde Gibson, second in the half mile, taking second place in 2:08. Don Davis and "Sketch" Goffredi tied for second place in the pole vault, jumping 3 feet 4 inches. The local relay team consisting of Bert MacFadden, No. 2, Ted Cohen, No. 3, Al. Gibson, No. 4, and Cliff Van Valkenburgh, anchor man, took third place. Captain Cliff Van Valkenburgh ran fourth in the 220, Ed Cunningham ran fourth in the mile. Jake Marcus tossed the shot for 40 feet for fourth place in that event.

The track was considerably dampened by the recent rains, making the time for the track events slower than usual.

Newburgh, as was expected, won the meet. Two DUSO records were broken at the meet, these being the broad jump and the shot put.

Don Clark's jump of 5 feet 3 inches was 7 1/2 inches short of the DUSO record set in 1927 of 5 feet 10 1/2 inches. However, Clark has jumped higher than he did Saturday, having jumped 5 feet four inches in the N. Y. M. A. track meet to take first place. In the Poughkeepsie meet he jumped 5 feet 2 inches to the second place and in the Newburgh relay he jumped 5 feet 4 inches to the third place.

Turf Tragedy —By Pap

Slump In Hitting, Pitching, Removes Yanks From Lead

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

The slump of the New York Yankees had carried them today out of the lead for the first time since the end of April while the consistent Cleveland Indians had replaced them at the head of the American League.

Leaving home with a 4 1/2 game lead over the Indians, the Yanks began to slip both in hitting and pitching. One of the most dismal performances came yesterday when they collected ten hits and eleven walks off Buck Newsom and still dropped a 16 to 7 decision to the St. Louis Browns. It was the Yanks' eighth defeat in 11 games.

Cleveland came from behind to beat Philadelphia 7 to 6 after the A's had scored five runs in the first. The triumph was the Indians' seventh in ten home games.

Two Other Draws

Two other battles for places in the standing remained drawn as Detroit trimmed the Boston Red Sox 9 to 2 and Washington out-slugged Chicago 9 to 6 with the aid of circuit swats by Buddy Myer and Joe Kuhel. The Tigers held third place by a single percentage point over the Senators while Boston and Philadelphia remained tied for sixth.

The St. Louis Cardinals provided another of the almost-daily changes in the National League standing when Dizzy Dean led them to a 5 to 2 two-inning victory over the Phillies that returned the Cards to second place. Chicago's Cubs couldn't touch Huck Betts' pitching, were shut out at Boston 5 to 0, and dropped a full game away from the lead and a half game behind St. Louis.

Giants Lose 7-3

Pittsburgh's pace setters smashed young Al Smith for four runs in the first inning and went on to trounce the Giants 7 to 3. Van Mungo, Brooklyn's ace, limited the Reds to six blows to give the Dodgers a 5 to 0 decision.

Schryver Stars Win Sunday, 5-4, Over Newark Giants Before Crowd

SPORT SLANTS By ALAN J. GOULD

After scanning some of the reports on what happened to them along the western front, I was prepared for almost anything upon paying the New York Giants a visit in their home dugout at the Polo Grounds.

Instead of finding the survivors cramped or wounded, crutches handy and Colonel Will Terry's head swathed in bandages, however, I discovered one and all in good spirits, good health and ready to swing right back into undisciplined action.

The belting around they got from the Pirates, Cardinals and Cubs may have taken some of the early cockiness out of the club but it has not affected its fighting spirit. From Col. Terry on down, they are now willing to concede that it's going to be tough, very tough to beat off these wild westerners but there's not the slightest doubt in the Giants' camp that they can repeat their pennant and world series victories.

For the reason that the club has what is quite commonly known as "guts," the Giants cannot be counted out of the running this early in the season, despite their ragged defensive work and lack of consistent punch. They have had their share of bad breaks so far.

Playing before one of the largest crowds to visit the Kingston Fair grounds this season, the Schryver All Stars outpointed the fast Newark Giants by one run Sunday afternoon, winning 5-4 as Bill Thomas starred on the pitching hill for the Lumbermen, allowing only six hits, and added to his glory with a home run over the left field fence.

Schryvers drew first blood, scoring three runs in the second inning. Lay started off with a double to right center. Tiano sent a single through short, scoring Lay. Knight batted safely and Burgevin went to first on an error, filling the bases. Fritz Bruhn doubled to right, scoring Tiano and Knight. Burgevin was caught at the plate.

The Giants got their first run in the fourth inning. Saloman singled and came home on Lennon's double to left. Their second came in the sixth.

Kingston tallied one in the same frame. Tiano reached first on an error, stole second and crossed the plate when L. Bruhn doubled to center.

The fifth Schryver run was Bill Thomas' homer over the left field barrier in the seventh inning.

Newark got its third run in the eighth. Lennon singled and Romano scored him with a double.

The ninth inning saw the visitors lose their chance to tie things up. McIsaac opened with a double to right field. Saloman reached first on Knight's error, McIsaac scoring. The tying run was on second and there was no outs. Derrico fled out to Tiano and Knight snugged Julianos. Lennon sent a hot one at Fritz Bruhn, who found the slam too gingery to handle, dropping the ball and recovering in time to catch Saloman who got too far off third base.

McHugh, the visiting moundman, fed the Lumbermen more bases than any other pitcher the has tossed over at the Fair Grounds this season, said Captain Charles Tiano of the local nine, but the Kingstonians, stimulated by the attendance of fans, fought harder than usual. They hope to continue. The loss was McHugh's first in seven games.

Memorial Day the Schryvers will take on the Brooklyn Black Sox, the first colored team booked here this season. Ted Fraleigh, big finger from Saugerties, will pitch for the locals. Joe Hoffman will catch.

National Collegiate Track Meet June 22-23

Los Angeles, May 28 (AP).—The national collegiate track and field championships here June 22 and 23 drawing from the Atlantic seaboard as never before, is expected to be a wide open team contest.

Bill Bonthron, Princeton's double winner in the I. C. A. A. A. meet Saturday, will head the eastern delegation. The probability was that Harvard, Pennsylvania and perhaps Yale, along with other eastern I. C. A. A. members, would send competitors.

Stanford, whose seven men squad walked off with the I. C. A. A. title, will have a tough time repeating its performance by winning the national collegiate championship, despite the fact that first places will count in points each, instead of five as in Philadelphia.

Serious opposition to Coach Phil Templeton's Indians from the Utah Alto team can be expected from south, middle west and west.

The most important of these will be Louisiana State.

Then there are the Trojans, decisive victors over Stanford in a dual meet this spring, who panned up the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America meet; not to mention Kansas, big six champion, headed by Glen Chalmers, and such big ten teams as Illinois, champion this year, Michigan and Indiana.

U.S. Davis Cup Netmen Score Over Canadians

Wilmington, Del., May 28 (AP).—The United States' Davis cup team forces—a mixture of power and guile on the courts—headed for the second round of the American zone eliminations today, a clean sweep over the Canadian squad already to their credit.

Lester Stiefen, the California giant, and Frank X. Shields, America's ranking ace, gave the United States two superlative points yesterday by taking the final two singles matches against the Canadians after the opening two singles and the doubles encounter already had been won.

Stiefen conquered Canada's captain, Gilbert Nunn, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4, while Shields accounted for L. R. Watt, of Montreal, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

The squad's captain, R. Norris (Dick) Williams forecast another sweep over the Mexican forces in Baltimore next week-end.

Scramble for Places In Speedway Race

Indianapolis, May 28 (AP).—A last minute scramble for places in the starting lineup of the annual 500-mile speedway race Wednesday was on today.

Ten to fifteen drivers prepared to battle for the last four positions in the field of 33 starters.

Most of the veterans of the speedway course are among the 29 who already have qualified, but two notables, Fred Frame, winner of the 1932 race, and Leon Duray, both of Los Angeles, were awaiting their chance in the last day of the trials.

After four more drivers qualify, others who wish to gain a place must run the 25-mile test at a high speed than some of the earlier qualifiers in order to get into the race. A minimum average of 166 miles an hour is required of all qualifiers.

Kaslich Rally in 8th Defeats Hercules 13-8

Scoring 11 runs in the eighth inning, Nick Kaslich's team defeated the Hercules at Port Ewen, 13-8 Sunday afternoon, thus breaking the winning streak that had brought the Powdermen seven victories.

Ken Best was on the mound for the Hercules and held his opponents down until the eighth when they went on a hitting rampage. Manello relieved him. Ryder caught.

The Kaslich club used three batters, Van Buren, Davis and Chambers. Missing caught.

Leading the hitting attack of the billiard parlor nine were Colvin, Gadd and Flanagan, who hit three safeties each.

The Kaslich A. C. is desirous of booking a game for Memorial Day.

Glasco All Stars Trip Dobler's Clowns

Dobler's Clowns found Jimmy Manfro's slants too hard for them Sunday afternoon and bowed to the Glasco All Stars at that club's diamond, 5-1. Welch and McElrath pitched for the Stars and allowed 11 hits to the Clowns. Morrell and Battalino smacking three apiece.

Alumni Game Off, Weather Was Poor
